PRIVILEGE 51

OVERVIEW

This example of a modern classic was built by the famous French shipyard Jeantot Marine. Privilege catamarans are well known for their up market luxury, comfort and performance to boot, and when the Privilege 51 was introduced it was long recognized as a market leader in luxury living at sea.

This example has loads of deck space both in dedicated sunbed areas and also on the huge nets well suspended above the water.

The huge cockpit includes a teak table, bimini with lots of shade and an outside fridge/freezer.

In the saloon there is lots of comfortable seating along with very nicely finished wood tables and fittings. The galley is a short step from the saloon but far enough away for that true galley down feel.

There are five double cabins, all with their own ensembles, and two crew cabins in the bow with independent access.

This catamaran provides, genset, Watermaker, AC, many fans, water toys and all the luxury you need for extended periods at sea.
